Quest you give me hope for the young people who are aware and understand what is happening. You are remarkable!

Quest -- You are remarkable to be so discerning and fighting back with what the public school system is pushing onto the youth.

God Bless you Quest and thank you for speaking out for many that do not have a voice ... it is most important that young people speak to be heard ... thank you.

Good to see committed youth who are not indoctrinated by the liberal progressive machine.

GOD WINS

As adults we need courage and confidence.

Can we have an adult program? I would love to learn to be articulate so that I can fight this tyranny. Part of not running for leadership is fear of speaking in public.

All these young speakers are wonderful proponents of freedom. But many adults must also step up and become wonderful proponents of freedom. Learn communication and leadership skills, please.
