- no evidence to support lockdowns work.
- lives may be saved in what they call the "first" wave but it is only temporary and prolongs the inevitable...the so called second and third wave are only the continuous of the first wave...simple common sense**this my words.
- lockdowns prolong the infectious period causing more deaths
- recent studies show it is less serious than yearly influenza
- note #22 - 'this' is not different than SARS 2003
