

We never could have done this alone.

Every step of the way—from our founding days to our recent breakthroughs with SOGI 12 3—has occurred by rallying the power of people. Here are some of our supporters, program collaborators, and champions:

Provincial Education Partners

Share your story.

We strive for our work to touch lives daily, and we want to hear your story. When all is said and done, it is the stories that will keep this work alive.

Funders

Discuss a funding collaboration.

Long-term financial support makes this work possible. Our financial collaborators are valued members of our team. Together we elevate the work of educators transforming SOGI-inclusive education—giving them new ways to share their voice and connect with each other.
