“Vaccine” Notice of Liability: Government Interference – VaxPass and Mask

How to Serve the Notice of Liability

- Print two copies of the Notice of Liability.
- Fill in the name of the person you are serving it to in the space provided at the top of the first page - on both copies.
- Sign your name and fill in the date in the space provided on the last page - on both copies.
- Keep one copy of the Notice for your records.
- Give the second copy to the person you are serving it to. If they choose not to accept it, then leave it on the floor at their feet.
- If you are serving the Notice in person, be sure to video record yourself serving it (or audio record if video is not possible).
- If sending by mail, you must use registered mail as that provides proof of delivery.

Keep all information (eg. Liability Notice copy, video, mailing proof etc.) in a safe place for future use.

NOTE: You do not need a lawyer to serve a Notice of Liability and you do not need consent, or the signature of the person you are serving it to.

Disclaimer: Action4Canada accepts no responsibility or liability for any harms or losses that occur as result of serving a notice of liability. If you do not agree to these terms, then please do not use this notice. We do not make any representations or warranties about the potential consequences of serving a Notice of Liability. This information is not intended as legal or health advice.

RE: Provincial Orders Interfering with Business Operations

This letter is in response to queries and/or threats made by regional health officer's, and/or any other government officials, attempting to enforce compliance to unlawful health orders which are in violation of the Charter of Rights, the Canadian Constitution, the Universal Declaration of Human Rights, the Canadian Criminal Code, the Genetic Non-Discrimination Act and National and International Agreements on Human Rights.

As a business owner I am at risk of personal and civil liability if I violate the individual guaranteed rights of my patrons.

There are no provisions in any orders of any health minister, doctor, or provincial legislation, that can, nor pretend that any measures can, override Charter or other pre-Charter constitutional rights.

If the Federal Government had invoked the Federal Emergencies Act, which it has not, even that Emergencies Act states:

AND WHEREAS the Governor in Council, in taking such special temporary measures, would be subject to the Canadian Charter of Rights and Freedoms and the Canadian Bill of Rights and must have regard to the International Covenant on Civil and Political Rights, particularly with respect to those fundamental rights that are not to be limited or abridged even in a national emergency.

I am under no moral or legal obligation to comply with any Orders to subject myself, or anyone else, to an experimental treatment, mandate masks, demand personal health information, or use coercion to obtain compliance. Neither my staff, nor I, have been deputized to enforce any orders. Further, Section 52(1) of the Constitution Act, 1982, clearly states that any law that is inconsistent with the Constitution is of no force and effect. Therefore, any measures taken by you to compel compliance by means of:

- instigating confrontation
- threats to remove me
- harassment in an attempt to demean, humiliate, and coerce
- attempts to seize person or property
- issuing fines and/or charges

will be met with a human rights complaint, civil litigation, and/or potential criminal charges against you.

I will hold you personally culpable for the financial injury and/or loss of my personal and business income, and that of my employees, and for any interference in my ability to provide food and shelter for my family. I therefore demand you cease and desist. You are formally on Notice.
