Notice of Liability:

Facilitating in Exposure of Minors to Sexually Explicit Materials, Activities and/or Events

How to Serve the Notice of Liability

- Print two copies of the Notice of Liability.
- Fill in the name of the person you are serving it to in the space provided at the top of the first page - on both copies.
- Sign your name and fill in the date in the space provided on the last page - on both copies.
- Keep one copy of the Notice for your records.
- Give the second copy to the person you are serving it to. If they choose not to accept it, then leave it on the floor at their feet.
- If you are serving the Notice in person, be sure to video record yourself serving it (or audio record if video is not possible).
- If sending by mail, you must use registered mail as that provides proof of delivery.

Keep all information (eg. Liability Notice copy, video, mailing proof etc.) in a safe place for future use.

NOTE: You do not need a lawyer to serve a Notice of Liability and you do not need consent, or the signature of the person you are serving it to.

*Disclaimer: Action4Canada accepts no responsibility or liability for any harms or losses that occur as result of serving a notice of liability. If you do not agree to these terms, then please do not use this notice. We do not make any representations or warranties about the potential consequences of serving a Notice of Liability. It has become evident that the LGBTQ SOGI 123 learning resources, implemented into the provincial educational curriculum across Canada in the past several years, have become an avenue to expose minors to sexually explicit, pornographic and inappropriate teachings, materials and activities.

As a Canadian citizen I have a duty to report the following concerns. Through the SOGI 123 resource students (K-12) are being encouraged to masturbate, experiment with the same sex, and are being exposed to pornographic cartoon material depicting minors engaged in explicit sexual activity. These pornographic/explicit books are being found in schools and public libraries across Canada<sup>1</sup>.

It is understood that many of these books have been permitted in an attempt to support the diversity and inclusion guidelines. However, the books must be age appropriate, not cause emotional harm and should not be sexually explicit so as to stay within the bounds of the rule of law and School/Education Acts.

Schools are also encouraging students to participate in Pride parades and events which are exposing minors to nudity, sexually explicit acts and sexual paraphernalia<sup>2</sup>. Pride day has turned into Pride month and now into Pride year as the school calendar is filled with activities that are indoctrinating children and further exposing them to sexually explicit groups and organizations who are grooming children. For eg. Youth for a Change promoting events that involve Twinks.<sup>3</sup> In addition, drag queens are being promoted and invited to perform for students, exposing them to indecent sexual acts.

According to Section 163.1 of the Criminal Code, it is an indictable offense liable to imprisonment, to exploit or expose minors to any form of pornography or sexually explicit material or activities.

Criminal Code Section 163.1 (1)<sup>4</sup>:

Definition of child pornography

In this section, child pornography means:

(a) a photographic, film, video or other visual representation, whether or not it was made by electronic or mechanical means,

(i) that shows a person who is or is depicted as being under the age of eighteen years and is engaged in or is depicted as engaged in explicit sexual activity, or

(ii) the dominant characteristic of which is the depiction, for a sexual purpose, of a sexual organ or the anal region of a person under the age of eighteen years;

(b) any written material, visual representation or audio recording that advocates or counsels sexual activity with a person under the age of eighteen years that would be an offence under this Act;

(c) any written material whose dominant characteristic is the description, for a sexual purpose, of sexual activity with a person under the age of eighteen years that would be an offence under this Act; or

(d) any audio recording that has as its dominant characteristic the description, presentation or representation, for a sexual purpose, of sexual activity with a person under the age of eighteen years that would be an offence under this Act.

Making child pornography

(2) Every person who makes, prints, publishes or possesses for the purpose of publication any child pornography is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to imprisonment for a term of not more than 14 years and to a minimum punishment of imprisonment for a term of one year.

Distribution, etc. of child pornography

(3) Every person who transmits, makes available, distributes, sells, advertises, imports, exports or possesses for the purpose of transmission, making available, distribution, sale, advertising or exportation any child pornography is guilty of an indictable offence and liable to imprisonment for a term of not more than 14 years and to a minimum punishment of imprisonment for a term of one year.

Possession of child pornography (eg Book: It's Perfectly Normal - Animated/Cartoon Pornography<sup>5</sup>)

(4) Every person who possesses any child pornography is guilty of

(a) an indictable offence and is liable to imprisonment for a term of not more than 10 years and to a minimum punishment of imprisonment for a term of one year; or

(b) an offence punishable on summary conviction and is liable to imprisonment for a term of not more than two years less a day and to a minimum punishment of imprisonment for a term of six months.

In addition, encouraging minors to masturbate is a criminal offense according to section 152 of the Criminal Code of Canada.

Criminal Code Section 152<sup>6</sup>:

Every person who, for a sexual purpose, invites, counsels or incites a person under the age of 16 years to touch, directly or indirectly, with a part of the body or with an object, the body of any person, including the body of the person who so invites, counsels or incites and the body of the person under the age of 16 years,

(a) is guilty of an indictable offence and is liable to imprisonment for a term of not more than 14 years and to a minimum punishment of imprisonment for a term of one year; or

(b) is guilty of an offence punishable on summary conviction and is liable to imprisonment for a term of not more than two years less a day and to a minimum punishment of imprisonment for a term of 90 days.

The Canadian Center for Child Protection also defines a non-contact sexual abuse as<sup>7</sup>:

- Encouraging a child to masturbate or watch others masturbate
- Exposing a child to individuals engaging in sexually explicit acts (including exposure to adult pornography)
- Exposing a child to child sexual abuse material

I therefore demand the following books, and other titles by the same authors, be immediately removed.

<https://action4canada.com/wp-content/uploads/List-of-SOGI-Inclusive-Books-for-K-12-Schools.pdf>

I further demand a Freedom of Information providing all the details (to include emails, attachments and any other correspondence) of who approved these books, as well as the grounds for this approval, any instructions given from anyone else in relation to this approval, and minutes of all meetings in relation to all such approvals.

Due to the rising number of concerns from parents in response to the highly politicized and controversial SOGI-123 learning resources, and their negative impact on the well-being of the majority of children, these resources must immediately be removed from the provincial educational curriculum.

School guidelines do not supersede the Criminal Code in these matters. Individuals/educators who approve and/or use or make accessible to minors any pornographic materials, resources, performers (i.e. drag queens) or activities/events, will be held personally liable and may be subject to criminal charges.
